Hi Melissa. Is this for the Commonwealth v. [REDACTED] case? By "tomorrow" do you mean Tuesday? I just got your email when I came in this morning but it looks like you sent it last night. Kate and I are both here at the lab today. We work 6:45am – 2:45pm and then we both have one year old's that we need to pick up from daycare. I don't think either one of us has committed to going anywhere else today so we could be available to testify as long as we could be back to the lab by 2:45. Let us know as soon as you can. Thanks!

-Dan
